Dear [REDACTED]

Enclosed are pages 167-315 of the preliminary draft of this bibliography on Intelligence and National Security. These pages conclude the initial first draft, excepting the introduction which I am now writing. A Supplement will follow. Possibly a section on "Fiction", and an Errata sheet.

Best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Bill Harris

Dear [REDACTED]

On Wednesday and Thursday, December 21st and 22nd, I shall be in town to work on some classified material.

I expect to stop by the Agency, for a short session with Phil Edwards about an article now in the works.

If you would like to offer any comments, informal, off-the-record, or otherwise, or, if there are people less than fully satisfied with what I am doing and who have been in contact with you about this bibliography, please feel free to get in touch with me when I am in town, or have them do so. When I come out to Langley I would be pleased to chat with anyone who might have some constructive observations --- but my schedule is a busy one, and you should not feel that I am asking you or anyone else to make comments which no one cares to make. I shall assume that no appointments are in order, unless informed to the contrary.

Sincerely yours,

William R. Harris

Dear [REDACTED] 25X1A9a

Enclosed are sections 15 and 16 of my Intelligence and National Security bibliography.

These sections will be disseminated to my students on Tuesday, December 13, 1966.

I gather that the Agency has no opinion respecting dissemination of this material, at least none which is considered appropriate to communicate to me. Unless someone considers it unwise, I shall give copies of this bibliography to the Library of Congress and to the Harvard College (Widener) Library.
